

NEAS BOOK AWARD 2010

Book Award RFP

Again this year, NEAS will offer awards on a competitive basis to support graduate students and post-doctoral fellows in developing a professional psychological library. The intent of this award is to encourage an interest in psychology and promote professional development. The Book Awards are supported by funds raised by the Barry Colt Student Development Committee.

Eligibility

Graduate and post-doctoral NEAS members who will be attending the 49th Symposium in Bristol may apply for up to 100% of the cost of a single psychological text. Applications can be made in successive years; however, applicants are restricted to one application per year.

Application

This book award is competitive. Awards may be full or partial. Applicants must complete the attached form and return it in electronic form to Glen Thursby at thursby.glen@epa.gov. All applications must be received by April 1, 2010 to be considered. Applicants should make a convincing case for how the acquisition will improve their development. The application must be endorsed by the candidate's advisor/mentor. The explanation for proposed funding should not exceed the space allotted on the following form (12pt font, same margins). Brevity is appreciated. If your application is not acknowledged by Glen within a few days after sending, please email him to be certain he indeed did receive it.

Notification

Awardees will be notified during the 49th NEAS meeting. Recipients must be in attendance to receive the award unless special arrangements have been made with Glen Thursby prior to the meeting date.
